MER BANKERS ARE | FATAL WRECK ON THE NOICTED AT BOISE OREGON SHORT LINE

Bills Returned Saturday Bench Warrants Served at Midnight.

Special to The Tribune.

If Maho, Sept. 23.—Banking and strices of the city were given along shock today when it was set that the special grand jury, and been in session in the district had returned fifteen true bills in the officers and directors of the Boise State bank which falled a set. Three of the officials, Eugene had cashler; J. W. Keefe, assistant and potatoes and with a caboose attached, broke loose from a train at Hansen and, coming down the line at the rate of about ninety miles an hour, crashed into a freight train. The caboose leading the runaway cars, was completely telescoped, going entirely over the engine of the eastbound freight, half of the caboose landing on either side of the track and all the cars being piled in confusion. The train crew at Hansen, missing the cars, started after them with an engine, but were unable to stop them. Knowing of the presence of a man in the caboose a search was started immediately after the crash, but was interrupted by the wreckage taking fire. When found some three or four hours later he was dead! His name was Fred Tschannen. He was a sheep buyer and was taking his sheep to his place near Heyburn.
